

DOMINA

National Association for Family Employment in the Domestic Work Sector

Protects families in the domestic work sector and provides support to manage professional relationships with domestic workers and family carers.

Offers specialized consultancy to families who hire domestic helpers, care workers, babysitters, operating through a solid network of DOMINA centers across the country.

Works every day to ensure the correct application of current legislation and of the national collective agreement on domestic work, co-signed by DOMINA, Filcams-CGIL, Fisascat-CISL, UilTucs, Federcolf and Fidaldo.

Is an influential and privileged interlocutor of the Italian Parliament, of Italian Ministers and other governmental bodies. DOMINA acts as the spokesperson of families who hire domestic workers and represents their needs and rights.

DOMINA runs research and monitors domestic work through its own Observatory, promoting higher professionalism in the sector. Together with social partners, DOMINA contributes to the development of Cas.sa.Colf, which offers supplementary health services to employers and workers. Together with EBINCOLF, DOMINA offers training opportunities to qualify the competences required in domestic work.

DOMINA promotes the National Collective Agreement on Domestic Work as an essential means to protect those who hire domestic workers. DOMINA is a reliable actor in the eyes of families and operates in total transparency and integrity.

DOMINA: a meaningful, professional and trustworthy choice for families hiring domestic workers.
